Major General A. M. Bolling
Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2
Department of the Army
Washington, D. C.

Dear General Bolling:

Please refer to my recent telephone call to you concerning [redacted] who is your representative [redacted]. Attached is a letter from [redacted] concerning [redacted]. This information is confirmed by our own investigations. As you can readily recognize, the sensitivity of our operations is such that we cannot have any discussion of our work outside of official circles. I would appreciate it if you would take immediate steps to have [redacted] transferred.

In this connection I would also recommend that [redacted] who is your representative in [redacted] be transferred simultaneously. While there is no derogatory information concerning [redacted] I do not believe that his presence is contributing to the operations of our office.

On the other hand, [redacted] who is a representative [redacted] has been doing an outstanding job. I would greatly appreciate it if you would arrange for his permanent assignment to the Central Intelligence Agency.

Sincerely,

WALTER B. SMITH
Director
